We are a 24/7 linear content provider delivering a new and unique entertainment concept that combines the voice and music of radio with visually stunning high definition videos from around the globe. Our US patented programming creates a relaxing space for mind, body, and soul resulting in Television you never want to turn off™.

Our content is one hour programs divided into four equal segments. Each segment is 15 minutes long and contains 13 minutes and 50 seconds of programming (an individual episode), two thirty second commercial avails, and one ten-second network identification spot. With 10+ video categories and over 1100+ unique episodes, our viewers are treated to a virtual HD window on the world. This is relaxation television appropriate for any occasion at work or home.
